

sympathy and thereby the results of VII standard were far below average during the last year ; is it due to negligence of duty of higher authorities ;

(b) how and to whom the remainders of Mango trees were sold after the school reopened in May last ?

Sri K. V. SHANKARA GOWDA (Minister for Education).—

(a) Government is not aware of the complaints about the results of VII Standard in the year 1969. The higher authorities have also not received any complaints.

(b) Instructions were issued to utilise the pieces of roots of the auctioned mango tree, as far as possible, for preparation of Midday meals. The roots which could not be uprooted were permitted to be destroyed so as not to cause inconvenience to the Children while playing.

Sri D. S. NADKARNI.—As regards question No. 89, I have no Supplementaries.
